Sherbourne Health celebrates the launch of our Food For Good Capital Campaign

In late April, Sherbourne hosted an event to raise awareness about our response to food insecurity, including raising funds to transform our lobby cafe into an accessible space and a social enterprise. Thanks to our supporters who joined us, including MPP Kristyn Wong-Tam. A huge thanks to Ontario Trillium fundraising goal! You can find more images from our event on our new Instagram page.

What Does a Clinical Systems Navigator Do?

As a Clinical Systems Navigator for trans and non-binary health at Rainbow Health Ontario, Jodi Asphall wears many hats. He manages the trans and non-binary health care inquiries we receive from health care providers, authors RHO-produced documents, such as an FAQ on transition-related hormone therapy, and offers expertise for a wide range of questions. In this profile, Jodi shares his experiences in the role and why it's important for doctors and other care providers to have a helping hand on their learning journeys.

HIV testing kits

Sherbourne Health is now distributing home HIV Self-Testing Kits. You do not need to be a registered service user to receive a testing kit, and individuals can request up to five testing kits at a time, for free. Please visit STASH in room 1080 to request your kits, or for more information on HIV testing or services, contact 416-324-4180.

2SLGBTQ Family Resources

The 2SLGBTQ Family Resources Program at Sherbourne Health provides information, resources, and referrals for queer and trans folks looking to grow their families, 2SLGBTQ families, and gender-expansive kids and youth. Our goal is to make access to information, programs, and services more readily available to all members of our diverse communities. Check out the upcoming programming here on the Sherbourne Health website.
